

Our D&I Strategy

Our Performance

Creating safe spaces and a sense of inclusion and belonging

Our colleagues feel safe and able to speak up, sharing their experiences to build a better place to work and for our customers to do business with.

Inclusive Leadership

Our leaders create the conditions for excellence through role modelling inclusive behaviours and creating a nurturing and collaborative environment for colleagues to perform to their best.

Learner mindset

We learn from each other; We are brave to accept when things don't go well and learn from them; We strive to raise the bar of our performance and the service we give to our customers.

Opportunities to succeed no matter your background

We want to attract and retain the very best people to work for Orbit no matter their background and celebrate and embrace our differences.

We are here for our customers

Everything we do has our customers interest at heart.
